Description

Set in a peaceful and tranquil location, this unique property is full of potential and character.

With a total area of 5,370 m², the property includes an old house in need of renovation, offering an excellent opportunity to create your dream home. The original stone walls give the house a rustic and traditional charm, preserving its authentic character. The house is single-storey and provides ample space to be redesigned according to your vision. Adjacent to the house, there is a shed that could be repurposed, for example, as a parking area or additional storage.

The flat land also features a beautiful traditional threshing floor with an annex, which serves as a small support building and adds further versatility to the property.

Located in a small village, the property is approximately 15 km from Ferreira do Zêzere and 20 km from Tomar, where you will find all essential services, shops, and amenities.

If you dream of restoring a property and living in a place where tranquillity, nature, and fresh air prevail, this could be the perfect opportunity.

Come and discover this charming property and allow yourself to fall in love.
