Description

Partially stone house for sale in Beco, Ferreira do Zêzere, requiring renovation.

Situated in a quiet, dead-end road in the heart of the village, the property offers both community and privacy. The land is highly fertile and borders a seasonal stream.

The property includes several annexes attached to the main building, providing the potential for significant expansion. Previously connected to mains electricity, reconnection of services is straightforward, allowing for the immediate commencement of renovation work.

The land features several olive trees and a borehole, ideal for maintaining the property.

Located about 10 km from Ferreira do Zêzere, the area is surrounded by stunning landscapes and offers a range of water activities. Known for its tranquil rural charm, Beco offers a peaceful lifestyle surrounded by lush countryside and beautiful natural landscapes. The village is characterized by traditional Portuguese architecture and a tight-knit community. Its proximity to Ferreira do Zêzere and the renowned Castelo do Bode Lake adds to its appeal, providing residents with access to stunning outdoor activities and scenic views.

The closest major airport to Ferreira do Zêzere, is Lisbon Portela Airport (Humberto Delgado Airport), located approximately 130 kilometers southwest of the village. This airport is the primary international gateway for the region, offering a wide range of domestic and international flights.
